

2021

5StarWines – the Book

GUIDELINES

Organized by:

Supported by:

ARTICLE 1 - ORGANISER AND VENUE

Veronafiere S.p.A. (hereinafter referred to as "Veronafiere" or "Organiser") announces and organises an event whose purpose is to carry out oenological assessment through quality tastings at an international level.

This event is called "5StarWines - the Book" - edition 2021 (hereinafter also only "5StarWines - the Book" or "Grand Tasting") and is aimed at producing a publication that include the wines which, on the basis of tastings carried out, have obtained high quality evaluations.

5StarWines - the Book will also include a section dedicated to special wines (organic, biodynamic and sustainable) called Wine Without Walls (hereinafter referred to as "WWW"), in accordance with paragraph 4.2 below.

The final stage of the assessment will be held in the city of Verona, at Veronafiere, from 16 to 18 June 2021.

Veronafiere, pending any provisions of the D.P.C.M. (Prime Ministerial Decree) that may be in force in the months during the Exhibition with regards to the containment and management of the epidemiological emergency caused by COVID-19, reserves the right to reschedule the final phase, organising it entirely or partially in an "agile" mode, through connection to an online platform and video conference, on dates to be defined and communicated by the Organiser.

ARTICLE 2 - ORGANISING COMMITTEE

The Organising Committee consists of

- a President
- a Vice-President (Deputy President)
- a Chief Executive Officer
- a Tasting Coordinator
- a Chief Technical Officer
- an Organising Coordinator
- an Estates Recruitment Coordinator
- a Legal Affairs Coordinator

The Organising Committee is responsible for supervising the implementation of 5StarWines - the Book. Its decisions are final.

ARTICLE 3 - TYPES OF WINES ADMITTED

5StarWines - the Book is open to all wines conforming to the definition of the International Code of the O.I.V., presented by producers from any country. A company is defined as a production entity identified by a name or company name, also shown on the label, of the wines submitted to 5StarWines - the Book.

Producers are defined as

1. entities producing grape must obtained from the processing of fresh grapes obtained, purchased or contributed by their members, also for the purpose of its marketing;
2. entities producing wine from the processing of fresh grapes or grape must which they themselves have obtained, purchased or contributed by their members, including for the purpose of marketing;
3. entities that elaborate, refine and package wine, delivered by members and/or purchased, also with a view to its marketing.

Only batches of bottled wine, according to the capacities indicated in Article 5 item d), with a minimum quantity of at least 1,000 litres, may participate in 5StarWines - the Book. Wines made from grapes or musts from countries other than that of the producing company are not admitted to 5StarWines - the Book. Aromatised wines are admitted. The participation of wine-based drinks (with the exception of aromatised wines) and product cocktails is also excluded. In addition, wines presented by individual or associated producers who have been the subject of legal proceedings for fraud or adulteration with a sentence that has become final are not permitted.

Organized by:

Supported by:

For the purposes of the awarding of the Trophies referred to in Article 8) below, the term "Producer" refers not only to an individual company but also to a group of companies that can be traced back to a single producer, provided that the application form, label and/or back label of the wine presented expressly indicate the reference to the producer.

Companies that are already in debt with the Organiser due to non-payment relating to previous initiatives/events organised by Veronafiere may not be enrolled in a new edition of 5StarWines - the Book if they have not first fully settled their debt. Should these Companies submit payment for the new edition, this will be retained by the Organiser as balance/advance payment for the previous debt. It is understood that the participants expressly waive the right to impute payments in a different way, in accordance with Art. 1193 of the Civil Code, paragraph 1.

ARTICLE 4 - CATEGORIES OF SUBMISSION

4.1. The wines presented must belong to one of the following five categories:

- Still wines
- Semi-Sparkling wines
- Sparkling wines
- Sweet Wines
- Fortified Wines

Still wines are defined as wines with a natural carbon dioxide content of less than one atmosphere.

Semi-sparkling Wines are defined as wines with an excess pressure of between 1 and 2.5 atmospheres at 20°C, a total alcohol content of not less than 9 degrees and an actual alcohol content of not less than 7 degrees.

Sparkling Wines are defined as products with an excess pressure of not less than 3 atmospheres at 20°C and an actual alcoholic strength of not less than 8.5 degrees.

Sweet wines are defined as products whose residual sugar content from grapes is a wine with a residual sugar content from fermentation, glucose plus fructose, greater than or equal to 45 g/l and resulting exclusively from the partial alcoholic fermentation of grapes or grape must, the sugar content of which has been obtained exclusively by natural means during the ripening of the grapes, or can be obtained by following the requirements of Sheet 1.10 "Controlling the sugar content of the grape harvest", in particular raisining, grape selection and cryo-selection. The actual alcoholic strength of the wine may not be less than 4,5% vol.

Fortified wines shall mean products (a) obtained from one or more wine-sector products as defined in point 5 of Part IV of Annex II and in points 1, 3 to 9 of Part II of Annex VII to Regulation (EU) No 1308/2013, with the exception of wine from which the wine is made. (b) in which the grapevine products referred to in point (a) represent at least 75% of the total; (c) to which alcohol may have been added; (d) to which colouring agents may have been added; (e) to which grape must, grape must in fermentation, or both may have been added; (f) to which sweeteners may have been added; (g) which have an actual alcoholic strength of 15% vol. or more but not more than 22% vol.

All types of wine that do not meet the requirements of Article 3 and all products that do not fall into one of the above categories are not permitted.

Still Wines with designation of origin (for European Union countries, PDO), with geographical indication (for European Union countries, PGI) and, for other countries, according to the international wine labelling standards adopted by the Organisation Internationale de la Vigne et du Vin ("International Standard for Wine Labelling - 2015 edition"), grouped in a single category, are divided into the following 3 groups:

1. still white wines
2. still red wines
3. still rosé wines.

Within the three groups, a distinction is made between still wines aged in steel and still wines aged in barriques, or in any case aged in wood.

Semi-sparkling wines with denomination of origin (for EU countries PDO), with geographical indication (for EU countries PGI) and, for non-EU countries, according to the international wine labelling standards adopted by the Organisation Internationale de la Vigne et du Vin, grouped in a single category, are divided into the following groups:

1. dry and semi-dry semi-sparkling white wines with a residual sugar content of up to 45 grams/litre
2. semi-dry and dry semi-sparkling rosé wines with a residual sugar content of up to 45 grams/litre
3. dry and semi-dry semi-sparkling red wines with a residual sugar content of up to 45 grams/litre.

Sparkling wines with denomination of origin (for European Union countries, PDO), with geographical indication (for European Union countries, PGI) and quality sparkling wines and, for other countries, according to the international wine labelling standards adopted by the Organisation Internationale de la Vigne et du Vin, grouped in a single category, are divided into the following 3 groups:

1. white sparkling wines
2. rosé sparkling wines
3. red sparkling wines

Within the three groups, a distinction is made between sparkling wines produced with fermentation in an autoclave (charmat method) or in the bottle (classic method, ancestral method, "col fondo").

Sweet Wines with denomination of origin (for EU countries PDO), with geographical indication (for EU countries PGI) and, for non-EU countries, according to the international wine labelling standards adopted by the Organisation Internationale de la Vigne et du Vin), grouped in a single category, are divided into the following 3 groups:

1. white sweet wines - natural still, semi-sweet and sweet sparkling wines with residual sugar above 45 grams/litre.
2. sweet rosé wines - natural still, semi-sparkling sweet and sweet sparkling with residual sugar above 45 grams/litre.
3. sweet red wines - - natural still, semi-sparkling sweet and sweet sparkling with residual sugar above 45 grams/litre.

Fortified Wines with a designation of origin (for the countries of the European Union PDO), with a geographical indication (for the countries of the European Union PGI) and, for third countries, in accordance with the international standards for the labelling of wines adopted by the Organisation Internationale de la Vigne et du Vin are products (a) obtained from one or more grapevine products as defined in Annex II, Part IV, point 5, and Annex VII, Part II, point 1 and points 3 to 9 of Regulation (EU) No. 1308/2013, with the exception of "retsina" wine (b) in which the grapevine products referred to in point (a) shall represent at least 75% of the total; (c) to which alcohol may have been added; (d) to which colouring agents may have been added; (e) to which grape must, grape must in fermentation or both may have been added; (f) to which sweeteners may have been added; (g) have an actual alcoholic strength of 15% volume or more but not more than 22% volume.

4.2 - "WINE WITHOUT WALLS" SECTION

Companies, if they have the characteristics described below, must register their wines in the Wine Without Walls section. Participation in the specific Wine Without Walls section excludes the possibility of registering the same products for 5StarWines and vice versa.

This Wine Without Walls section is aimed at companies whose registered wines have obtained organic certification (European Regulation 203/2012, published in the Official Journal of the EU on 9 March 2012) or biodynamic certification or adherence to a protocol / system of certification of the sustainability of the wine supply chain, understood as a set of production rules and good practices (see, as a reference, the OIV Guide for the application of the principles of sustainable viticulture - Resolution OIV-VITI 641-2020, which complements the general principles on sustainability - Resolution OIV-CST 518-2016).

The Organiser reserves the right to carry out the necessary checks to ascertain the truthfulness and regularity of the information specified in the application form by the participating companies, which by accepting these Regulations undertake to collaborate in this respect as far as necessary. It is understood that the Organizer may proceed to the non-admission or exclusion from "Wine Without Walls" in the event that, as a result of the checks, it is revealed a lack of conformity of the requirements possessed by the wines and / or participating companies compared to what was declared.

Organized by:

Supported by:

4.3. Each winery may submit a free number of samples at its discretion for each group of wines in each category referred to in the preceding paragraph.

4.4. The Company shall not be entitled to a refund of the participation fee (even in the event of rescheduling or postponement of the Exhibition) or of the samples sent and not admitted.

The same will be applied to those Companies that have sent samples judged not to comply with the groups and categories envisaged or regulated by paragraph 1 above.

ARTICLE 5 - PROCEDURES FOR PARTICIPATION, SAMPLING, TRANSPORT AND CONTROLS

For each wine sample entered, the winery must send the following by courier and/or post between 29 March and 25 May 2021 to the address "5StarWines - the Book" - Via Bussolengo 8/C - Sommacampagna (VR), 37066, Italy, Tel. 045-515265 (warehouse hours 08:00-12:00 / 13:00-18:00): a) entry summary form sent online via the registration portal accessible at www.5starwines.it; b) no. 6 labels and any back labels identical to those of the wine entered.

Payment of the participation fee must be made by credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express), or by bank transfer to the following bank details:

Header: Veronafiere S.p.A.

BANCO BPM AGENZIA CASSA MERCATO - IBAN: IT07R 05034 11751 0000 0012 2261
SWIFT or BIC: BAPPIT21011

For non-Italian companies, participation fees will be invoiced without the application of VAT, provided that the VAT number or tax identification number is indicated on the application form. The bank transfer must clearly indicate the name of the participating winery and the reason for payment "5StarWines - the Book" (any bank charges will be charged to the sender). Wines from companies that have not paid the registration fee will not be admitted; d) no. 6 (six) bottles, with a capacity of 0.750 litres or, alternatively, only for natural sweet wines and for liqueur wines, no. 12 (twelve) bottles with a capacity of 0.500 or 0.375 litres, fully labelled and packaged in a single box.

On the carton of wine must be clearly written: "NON-COMMERCIAL SAMPLE sent for 5StarWines - the Book" - Via Bussolengo 8/C - Sommacampagna (VR), 37066, Italy; e) if requested by the Organising Committee, the certificate of analysis, also issued by the company laboratory, reporting at least the following parameters - alcoholic strength at 20° C; - reducing sugars g/l; - free sulphur dioxide; - total acidity in g/l, expressed as tartaric acid or sulphuric acid; - pressure if sparkling or semi-sparkling wines; - total sulphur dioxide; - volatile acidity per thousand. The certificate must include the name of the company and the participating wine with all useful information for identifying the sample. The Organising Committee reserves the right to carry out its own comparison and control analyses; f) if requested by the Organising Committee, for wines with denomination of origin, the certificate of suitability issued by the control body attesting to the origin and denomination of the wine. Please send the documentation inside the carton together with the wine samples.

If the final label for the vintage entered is not yet available, the Participant must not use the label from the previous vintage. In this case, please use a provisional label showing the following information: a) name of the producer, b) name of the wine, c) vintage (where applicable), d) country of origin, e) region of origin (where applicable), f) sub-region (where applicable), g) bottle volume, h) alcohol content, i) batch number.

5.2. Veronafiere reserves the right to carry out the appropriate checks to ascertain the truthfulness and regularity of the information specified in the presentation of the application form by Companies, which, by accepting these Regulations, undertake to collaborate in this regard as necessary. It is understood that the Organisers may refuse admission or exclude the wines from "5StarWines - the Book", should the checks reveal that the requirements of the participating wines and/or companies do not comply with those declared.

5.3. The Organiser declines all responsibility for any delay in the arrival of samples with respect to the established date, for the total or partial loss of samples during transport, for chemical, physical and organoleptic changes to the samples due to temperature fluctuations, for breakages or other anomalies suffered during transport. The costs of shipping, customs clearance, and subsequent transport to the final destination - shall be borne entirely by the presenting companies. These costs must be paid directly to the forwarding agent. Wines that do not comply with these provisions will not be admitted. Samples that do not comply with these regulations will not be collected and will therefore be automatically excluded. This will not entitle the Company to a refund of any registration fee paid; therefore, the shipment is at the Company's total expense and risk. Samples sent carriage paid will be refused. Rejected samples will not be returned.

ARTICLE 6 - METHODS OF STORAGE AND ANONYMISATION OF SAMPLES

6.1. Upon receipt of the samples submitted, the Organiser shall store them in accordance with the strictest standards of oenological technique.

6.2. The wine samples, before being submitted to the Commissions for examination, shall be anonymised through the use of a special code, assigned to the sample by the person in charge of the Organising Committee (the Legal Affairs Coordinator).

6.3. In the event of complete or partial remodelling of the Exhibition format in "agile" mode, the Organisers shall send the judges the wine samples, contained in the bottles sent by the companies or in special containers suitable for preserving the organoleptic characteristics of the wine, which shall be anonymised beforehand and assigned in batteries. It will be the responsibility of the Organiser to ensure that the selected judges keep the samples received in accordance with the strictest procedures and meet the requirements indicated to preserve the objectivity of the evaluation. The judges shall also be responsible for providing and guaranteeing the presence of a third party during the sample sorting and tasting phase.

6.4. The selected judges shall accept the rules and guidelines to ensure the objectivity of the blind tasting.

ARTICLE 7 - COMPOSITION, FUNCTIONING OF THE TASTING COMMITTEES AND EVALUATION CRITERIA

7.1. The Jury is composed of various Commissions/Panels, each of which is appointed by the Organising Committee. Each Commission/Panel is collectively made up of a suitable number of members, chosen from among expert tasters (Italian or foreign experts in the wine sector, journalists/wine writers from the Italian and international specialist press, oenologists), as well as a Commission Director/Panel Chairman.

The jurors are chosen freely and unquestionably by the Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer and the Technical Director/Chief Technical Officer representing the Organising Committee. The Chief Technical Officer is also the General Chairman and supervises the work of all the Commissions/Panels.

The Jury makes final judgments, except as subsequently stated in paragraph 8.3.

7.2. The Jury shall assess the participating wine samples using special sheets (which may also be in digital format using tablets) and assign a score expressed in hundredths. The evaluations shall be expressed independently by each member of the Committee. Each Commission shall assess a maximum of 100 samples per day over a period of eight hours in two separate sessions. In the event of the absence or impediment of one or more members of the Evaluation Commissions during the sensory analyses, the Organisers reserve the right to replace them with Italian technicians and/or journalists designated by the Chief Technical Officer / General Chairman, excluding persons who directly or indirectly contributed to the preparation and realisation of the event, chosen from a list of "reserves", wine experts identified as such prior to the start.

7.3. Should the Organisers change all or part of the arrangements for the Event, some judges will carry out the tasting at their own homes, assessing the participating wine samples using special sheets (which may also be in digital format using a web platform) and awarding a score expressed in hundredths. Should one or more judges be unable to attend or should the requirements of paragraph 6.4 not be met, the Organisers reserve the right to proceed with the evaluation conducted by the General Chairmen.

7.4. For the sake of confidentiality of the participating Companies, only the list of selected wines will be made known and not the list of participating Companies, nor the score assigned to the individual samples. Each Company will receive, in digital format and in a private manner, the results of the evaluation of its registered wines.

Organized by:

Supported by:

ARTICLE 8 - MINIMUM SCORE FOR THE SELECTION OF WINES

8.1. Each participating wine is evaluated by a Commission/Panel whose judges assign the score in hundredths. The General Chairmen, in order to make the final decision on the wine under discussion, proceed with the second tasting of the wine and establish whether or not the wine is suitable for a score of at least 90 hundredths.

Wines that obtain a score of at least 90 out of 100 will be included in the wine guide "5StarWines - the Book". Wineries scoring at least 90 out of 100 hundredths will be able to download the corresponding stickers on the event website.

Wines scoring between 85 and 89 out of 100 will also be sent a "Certificate" in digital format.

By registering for the Event, the Company authorises the Organiser to publish the data indicated during registration, as well as the references of the wines submitted, the scores, assessments and ratings received.

8.2. The Producer obtaining the best result calculated as the algebraic average of the sum of the scores referred to at least 3 (three) of its wines obtaining a Trophy (in at least two different categories), divided by the number of wines, shall be awarded the Special "Gran Vinitaly 2021" Trophy. Failing this, the Special "Gran Vinitaly 2021" Trophy may also be awarded to the Producer with the best scores for two wines in the same category.

8.3. The General Chairmen shall re-evaluate all wines achieving a score of not less than 90/100 out of 100 to confirm or otherwise the suitability of the judgement and award the six Special Trophies of: Best White Wine Trophy, Best Red Wine Trophy, Best Rosé Wine Trophy, Best Sparkling Wine Trophy, Best Sparkling Wine Trophy, Best Sweet Wine Trophy and Best Fortified Wine Trophy. The General Chairmen will also be free, at their discretion, to re-evaluate wines that score less than 90 out of 100.

8.4. In relation to Wine Without Walls, the evaluation of the wines submitted for this category will take place through the judgement of the jury (regulated in the same way by the specific articles of these regulations valid for 5StarWines), expressed in hundredths. The evaluations shall be expressed autonomously and objectively by each member of the Jury. Should the Organisers completely or partially change the way in which the event is held, some judges will carry out the tasting at their own domicile, assessing the participating wine samples using special forms (which may also be in digital format using a web platform) and awarding a score expressed in hundredths. Should one or more judges be unable to attend or should the requirements of paragraph 6.4 not be met, the Organisers reserve the right to proceed with the evaluation conducted by the General Chairmen.

Wines obtaining a score of at least 90 out of 100 will be included in the 5StarWines - the Book guide in the special section entitled: "Wine Without Walls". Wineries scoring at least 90 out of 100 hundredths will be able to download the corresponding stickers on the event website.

The Organiser will award the Best Company Wine Without Walls Trophy to the Producer with the best scores for two or more wines even in the same category and the Best Wine Without Walls Trophy to the wine with the highest score in hundredths. The General Chairmen above will be free, at their discretion, to re-evaluate also wines that have obtained a score lower than 90 out of 100.

Wines scoring between 85 and 89 out of 100 will also be sent a "Certificate" in digital format.

ARTICLE 9 - ANNOUNCEMENT OF WINNING WINES

9.1. Winners of the Trophies will be announced at a special event organised by Veronafiere. The list of companies and wines selected will be published on the 5StarWines - the Book site and in press releases for both the Italian and international press. Selected wines will also be presented at special tastings organised as part of special events promoted by Veronafiere until the next edition in Italy and worldwide. To this end, Companies must mandatorily provide a number of bottles of the selected wines in accordance with the quantities that will be requested directly by Veronafiere. All selected wines will be subject to special promotional action by Veronafiere until the following edition.

9.2. Companies whose wine(s) have been selected for 5StarWines - the Book and intend to mention them for promotional purposes must comply with the general regulations in force in each country. Awards not delivered during the awards ceremony will be sent by Veronafiere to the winning Companies, declining all responsibility for any loss or non-delivery.

ARTICLE 10 - USE OF THE BRAND

The "5StarWines" and "Wine Without Walls" trademarks and logos are the property of Veronafiere and may only be used on selected labels and not on the entire range of labels produced by companies. Any unauthorised use, reproduction or modification is strictly forbidden.

ARTICLE 11 - MODIFICATION OF REGULATIONS

The Organising Committee reserves the right to amend these regulations at any time should this become necessary.

ARTICLE 12 - EXCLUSIVE PLACE OF JURISDICTION

For any dispute relating to 5StarWines - the Book or inherent and consequent thereto, the Court of Verona shall have exclusive jurisdiction.

Organized by:

Supported by:

